

Domestic silver lining proposal system (No.01)

Pushwagner presenterer: TOBIAS ALEXANDER DANIELSSON

Åpning fredag 9. mai kl. 18.00 – 20.00

Pushwagner Galleri har gleden av å invitere til ny utstilling i visningsstedet Window Box. I Window Box presenteres utstillinger med yngre samtidskunstnere og våren 2014 har kurator Thale Fastvold i samarbeid med Amelia Beavis-Harrison invitert MA-studenter fra Kunstakademiet i Oslo til å stille ut. Galleri Pushwagner har eksistert siden våren 2010, og Pushwagner ønsker med dette prosjektet å støtte kunstkreisløpet og den unge kunstscenen.

My work is in the field between sculpture and painting, installation and performance. I see my work as an extension of a familiar environment in which I balance my own everyday life and my work process. Domestic silver lining proposal system (No.01) is a part of an ongoing project where I move objects and materials back and forth between my apartment and my studio. By putting together the materials with transient methods such as sewing, taping and pinning, I recreate this balancing as it becomes something constructed but at the same ephemeral. – Tobias Alexander Danielsson

Tobias Alexander Danielsson, born 1987 in Jönköping, Sweden, lives and studies in Oslo. He is currently doing his MA degree at The National Academy of Art in Oslo.